Welcome to worship at First Baptist. We are so glad that you have joined us today. From the heart of downtown Knoxville, we are touching lives around the world, sharing the ministry and life of Jesus Christ. If you need further information about our church, or desire a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, our ministers will be available following the service at each exit.

Please prepare for worship by:

- Silencing cell phones, pagers and PDAs.
- Encouraging children five years old and older to worship using the printed supplements available from ushers.
- Taking advantage of our Preschool Extended Session designed specifically for children age 3 and under. Pagers are provided to communicate with parents in case of emergency. Children age 4 years - 1st grade may attend Passage, our children's worship experience, after the children's sermon, or remain with their parents in the service.
- Noting that restrooms are located directly behind the choir loft.

Becoming a Member

You are welcome and encouraged to come to the front of the church to meet with a minister during the Hymn of Response to request baptism or to join the church. If you are not ready to do this, please complete the information in the tear-off portion of this worship folder and place it in the offering plate and a minister will contact you this week. Or, you may simply call the church office to request an appointment with any minister.

Continue the Experience

Check your local television provider's guide for information about the rebroadcast of today's worship service. The worship service is available on DVD and can be obtained by calling the church office. The message for today's worship service will also be available later this week online at www.fbcknox.org.

All praise to Thee, for Thou, O King divine,
didst yield the glory that of right was Thine,

Let every tongue confess with one accord
in heaven and earth that Jesus Christ is Lord;
and God the Father be by all adored:
Alleluia! Alleluia!

*Unison Call to Worship

The eternal Father,
who Loved us and set us free from our sins,
who loves us still with that love that will not let us go,
and who will love us forever,
call us to worship him today as the only true lover of our souls
The Lord stoops to receive the love of our poor hearts.
He call us to remember the depth of his love for us in Christ.
The Father seeks our love!

CCDA Conference

September 24-27, Raleigh, NC

Many of our ministers will be attending the Christian Community Development Association Conference (CCDA) on September 24-27 in Raleigh, NC. The CCDA's mission is to inspire, train, and connect Christians who seek to bear witness to the Kingdom of God by reclaiming and restoring under-resourced communities. If you are interested in attending, the cost is $229 plus travel and hotel fees. For more information, please contact Vanessa Moore (vmoore@fbcknox.org).

"Our Space and One Other"

Our Facilities Committee, in their ongoing efforts to spruce up our facilities, has come up with a great plan for us to help clean up our buildings. It's called "Our Space and One Other." The idea is for each group that meets in the church - such as Sunday School, Women on Mission, Choir - to take on the job of cleaning their meeting space and then cleaning one of the common areas of the church such as the Blue Room, a section of the Sanctuary, or another common area. The date for the event is September 27th (UT is playing away). Please talk with your group and plan to be part of "Our Space and One Other" to help make our facilities bright and clean.

How Deep the Father's Love for Us

Stuart Townsend / arr. Lloyd Larson

How deep the Father's love for us,
How vast beyond all measure,
That He should give His only Son
To make a wretch His treasure.

How great the pain of searing loss,
the Father turns His face away
as wounds which mar the Chosen One,
bring many sons to glory.

Behold the Man upon a cross,
my sin upon His shoulders;
ashamed, I hear my mocking voice,
call out among the scoffers.

It was my sin that held Him there
Until it was accomplished;
His dying breath has brought me life.
I know that it is finished.

Alas! and did my savior bleed,
and did my sovereign die?
Would He devote that sacred head
for sinners such as I?

I will not boast in anything,
No gifts, no pow'r, no wisdom;
but I will boast in Jesus Christ,
His death and resurrection.

Why should I gain from His reward?
I cannot give an answer,
but this I know with all my heart,
His wounds have paid my ransom.

Bridges Out of Poverty Training

Tuesdays, starting September 2, 6:00-8:15 pm

Join us for a six-week training series to learn more about the impact of poverty on people and businesses in our community. We will explore the hidden rules of economic classes and learn how to better enter into relationship with those living in our community. The cost is $5 for training materials. For six weeks, we will meet every Tuesday night, starting September 2nd, from 6:00-8:15 pm in the Hill Street Training Room. Please RSVP to Joy Claybrook at jclaybrook@fbcknox.org to reserve your spot.

Grief Share

Tuesdays, 6:00 pm, starting September 9

Grief is a normal part of life that we all experience at some time. Getting through those times of grief is not always easy, but there is help for getting through it. We will begin an 11-week seminar called Grief Share for those who have lost loved ones. Grief Share, a combination of video and group discussion, will begin on Tuesday, September 9th at 6:00 pm and continue for 11 weeks in the Mercy classroom. To reserve your place, call the church office or email Pam at pneal@fbcknox.org.

Bluegrass and BBQ Block Party!

September 14, 4:00-8:00 pm

We will gather on the front lawn for the Bluegrass and BBQ Block Party. Gold Rush and The Knox County Jug Stompers will provide the bluegrass sounds; WDVX will be on hand with us. Love That BBQ will pull up a huge smoker and cater the event. We will also have games to play, tables and chairs and blankets to help us feel at home. While the music and games are free, there will be tickets for the BBQ dinner. We will have all the details out later this week. Tickets are $7 and there will be a sign up sheet at the reception desk. This will be a great event to invite a friend to join you. We will also have flyers out across downtown inviting our community to come and join us as well. This should be a great event to kick off our fall together.

Clergy Training for Faith Based Initiative

The Tennessee Faith and Justice Alliance (TFJA), in conjunction with volunteer lawyers from the Knoxville Bar Association and Legal Aid of East Tennessee, will provide training to identify the need for legal assistance, including learning how to spot legal problems that affect the lives of their congregants and information on existing legal and social services resources in East Tennessee. This event is open to clergy and interested laity of all religious groups in the Knoxville area. The training will be the first TFJA event held in Knoxville, and will be held at First Baptist Church, September 16 from 12:00 until 2:00 PM. A sandwich lunch buffet will be available for $6.00.
