

PLEASE BE PRAYING FOR...

March 7, 2014

Welcome to worship at First Baptist. We are so glad that you have joined us today. From the heart of downtown Knoxville, we are touching lives around the world, sharing the ministry and life of Jesus Christ. If you need further information about our church, or desire a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, our ministers will be available following the service at each exit.

Please prepare for worship by:

- Silencing cell phones, pagers and PDAs.
- Encouraging children five years old and older to worship using the printed supplements available from ushers.
- Taking advantage of our Preschool Extended Session designed specifically for children age 3 and under. Pagers are provided to communicate with parents in case of emergency. Children age 4 years - 1st grade may attend Passage, our children's worship experience, after the children's sermon, or remain with their parents in the service.
- Noting that restrooms are located directly behind the choir loft.

Becoming a Member

You are welcome and encouraged to come to the front of the church to meet with a minister during the Hymn of Response to request baptism or to join the church. If you are not ready to do this, please complete the information in the tear-off portion of this worship folder and place it in the offering plate and a minister will contact you this week. Or, you may simply call the church office to request an appointment with any minister.

Continue the Experience

Check your local television provider's guide for information about the rebroadcast of today's worship service. The worship service is available on DVD and can be obtained by calling the church office. The message for today's worship service will also be available later this week online at www.fbcknox.org.

Congregational Response (Romans 12:1-11 NSRV)

Judy Russell: I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.

Congregation: Do not be conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect.

Ruthanne Brock: For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned.

Congregation: For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members of one another.

Judy Russell: We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

Ruthanne Brock: Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor.

All: Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord.

The Life of the Church

Dear First Family,

Beth and I want to thank you for the warm and gracious way you have welcomed us into your lives. It was our joy to get to meet so many of you at the close of worship and at the afternoon reception. We could not feel more loved and embraced than you have made us feel. We also deeply appreciate your incredible response to the Pounding for the Pastor. This part of the afternoon event was a great reflection of our ministry heart, and we are so grateful for the resources you have made possible for our church to share with our community ministry partners on our behalf. We thank God that we have been brought here to serve at your side and eagerly wait to see what God will do through this great church in the days ahead.

Grace and Peace, Tom and Beth Ogburn
