

A Special Welcome to our Guests

We are so glad you have joined us today. We invite you to complete a visitor card from the pew rack and share it with us by dropping it in the offering plate or bringing it to the guest table in either the Welcome Center or Front Door Foyer following the service. Also at the guest tables, we have a church mug for you which will provide you a keepsake of your visit, and tell you more about the ministries of First Baptist.

Worshipping with Children

First Baptist desires to come alongside families as they raise their children to be all God is calling them to become. Several resources are available to aid your family as you worship together.

Children age 3 and under may be dropped off on the 1st floor prior to the service to be part of our Preschool Extended Session, designed specifically for them. Pagers are provided to communicate with parents in case of an emergency.

All children are invited to the front of the Sanctuary for a children's sermon during the service.

Children age 4 - Kindergarten are invited to attend Passage, our children's worship experience, following the children's sermon, or to remain with their families in the service.

All Children are invited to worship using a children's bulletin, which can be picked up at the entrances.

Becoming a Member

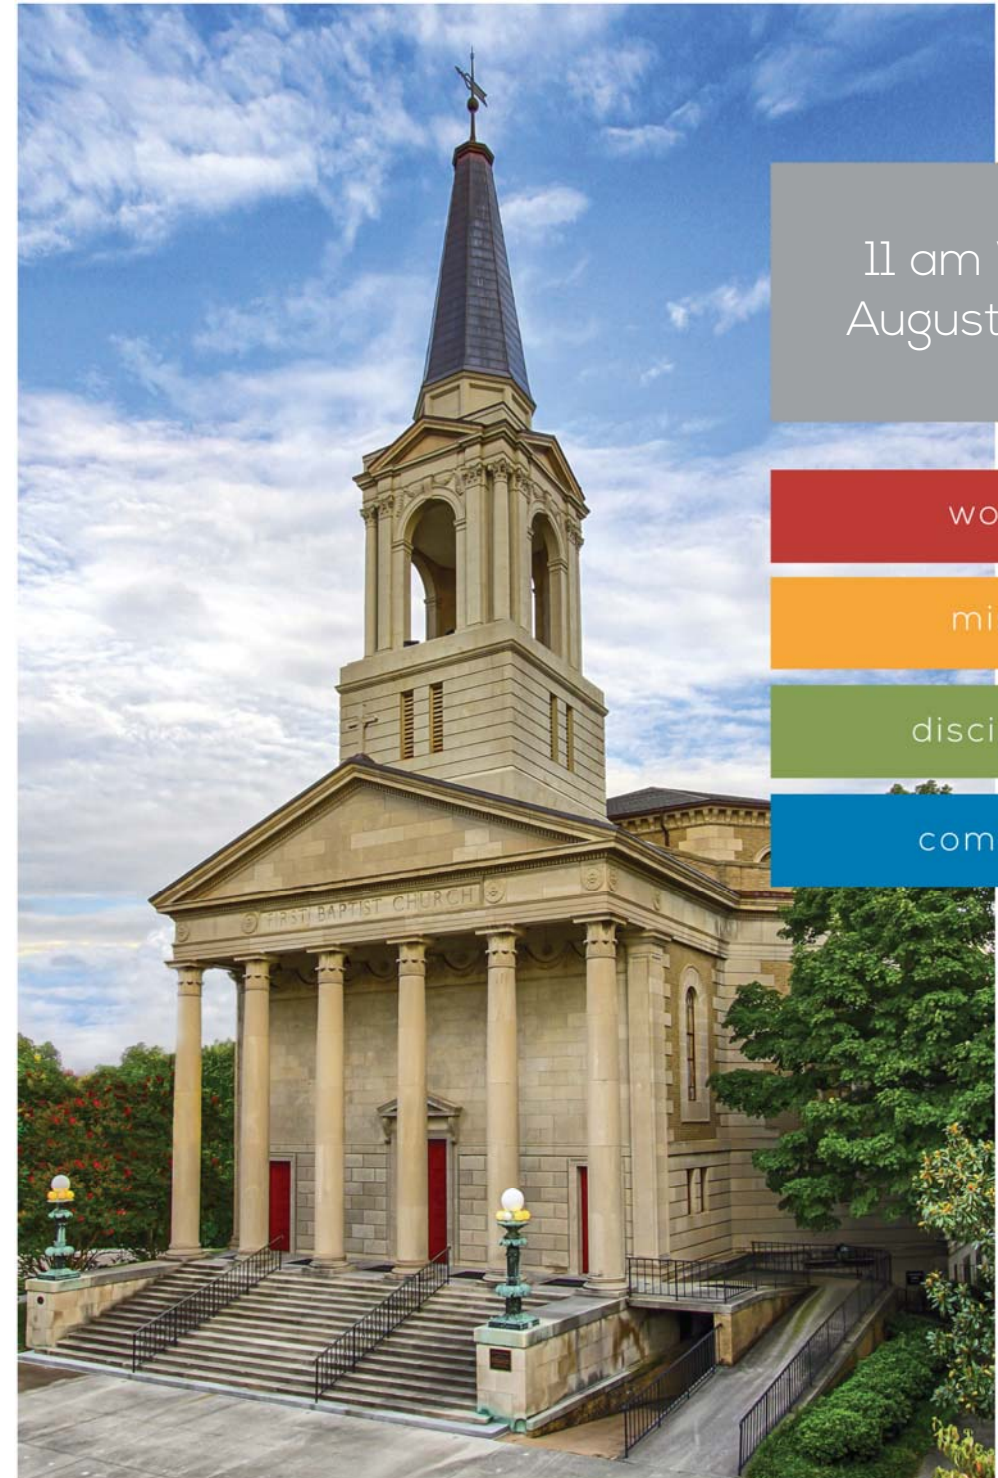

If you want to know more about having a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, feel free to talk with any of our ministers or most anyone in the pew. During our time of response you are welcomed and encouraged to come to the front of the church to meet with a minister to request baptism or to join the church. Our ministers will also be available following the service at each exit, or you may call the church office to request an appointment with any minister during the week.

Restrooms are located in the hallway directly behind the choir loft.

Hearing devices are available in the Reception Office

We Welcome Bo Prosser This Morning as Our Guest Preacher

Bo Prosser joined the senior leadership team of CBF in August, 2002. As the Coordinator for Congregational Life, he was called to bring his 25 years as a career congregational Christian educator to a new level. Though his title has changed, his challenge throughout the years has always been to help make the Fellowship more relevant to congregations and congregational leaders.

As a result, his teams have developed the It's Time program for spiritual formation, the You've Got the Time! Bible listening experience, a congregational prayer retreat model and, most recently, the Dawnings initiative. Additionally, his leadership has led to the production of several congregational discipleship pieces, Christianity for Beginners for adults, the Becoming Like Christ series for youth and children, Destinations, an annual planning resource and Klesis, an adult discipleship resource.

He has written and produced resources directly related to the missional church, and has helped to deepen CBF partnerships. His leadership has provided funding, writers and editors to produce a host of other congregational resources. Prosser has given previous leadership to restructuring the new church starts area and CBF's chaplaincy and pastoral counseling work.

Prosser has secured funding from several sources to insure the continued growth of the Dawnings initiative, collegiate student ministries, resource development and the CBF Fellows program. His interest in spiritual formation has been directly responsible for the deepening of prayer experiences for individuals and congregations.

In his new role as Coordinator of Organizational Relationships, Prosser is committed to deepening relationships with existing partners, developing relationships with new partners, working with CBF state and regional leaders and supporting his colleague, Devita Parnell, as she leads the Young Baptist Ecosystem.

Bo is a busy writer and speaker. He is an adjunct professor at several of CBF's partner seminaries, author/co-author/contributor to more than 15 books and over 50 professional articles.

Bo holds an undergraduate degree in Business Administration, an MRE and M.Div. from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Ky., and his Doctorate from North Carolina State University in Adult Education. He is a storyteller, improvisational trainer and professional coach.

He is married to Gail, has two adult daughters, and two grandchildren. In his spare time, he writes music and collects Coca-Cola memorabilia and old baseball cards.

Introduction of Guest Preacher

Scott Claybrook

Morning Scripture (Matthew 5:1-12)

Bo Prosser

Now when Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him, 2 and he began to teach them.

He said:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart,
for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

“Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring
by Johann Sebastian Bach

Jesu, joy of man's desiring,
Holy wisdom, Love most bright;
Drawn by Thee our souls aspiring,
Soar to uncreated light.
Word of God our flesh that fashioned
With the fire of life impassioned.
Striving still to truth unknown,
Soaring, dying, round Thy throne.

Through the way where Hope is guiding,
Hark what peaceful music rings!
Where the flock in Thee confiding,
Drink of joy from deathless springs.
Theirs is beauty's fairest pleasure;
Theirs is wisdom's holiest treasure.
Thou dost ever lead Thine own,
In the love of joys unknown.
