A Journey in Company …

Our church is in the midst of pilgrimage. From the earliest of days, Christians have undertaken journeys of great potential and great peril in hopes of encountering God. We as a church family are in the midst of such an unusual journey. From the first Sunday of Advent through Easter Sunday, we are traveling through the book of Matthew together. Each of our Sunday worship services and Wednesday Bible studies will focus on a different piece of Matthew’s story. All along the way, we encounter the words and works of Christ who invites us further along in the journey of faith. What ties these individual moments together is a common theme, a theme that comes to dominate Matthew’s entire gospel: redemption. We are thrilled you are able to take this journey alongside us.

A Place for Story …

Matthew’s gospel story is one of redemption. As we continue to see each week, Matthew, draws his reader’s attention to God’s work of redemption among the people of the world. We believe that God continues His work of redemption today, and we want to tell those stories.

As our church family turns its attention to God’s work of redemption throughout our lives and throughout our world, we want to invite you to share your own story of God’s redemption with us. In the coming weeks, this space will host stories of people from our church family who have encountered God’s redemptive love first hand. If you would consider sharing your own story, we invite you to email us at redemption@fbcknox.org or send us a letter here at the church (First Baptist Knoxville, Attn: Redemption Stories, 510 W. Main St., Knoxville, TN 37902).

We pray that the coming weeks will lead you into deeper relationship with a Lord and Savior who is constantly working to redeem the world and us along with it. With an eye towards redemption,

Your First Baptist Staff

Welcome to worship at First Baptist. We are so glad that you have joined us today. From the heart of downtown Knoxville, we are touching lives around the world, sharing the ministry and life of Jesus Christ. If you need further information about our church, or desire a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, our ministers will be available following the service at each exit.

Please prepare for worship by:

- Encouraging children five years old and older to worship using the printed supplements available.
- Taking advantage of our Preschool Extended Session designed specifically for children age 3 and under. Pagers are provided to communicate with parents in case of emergency. Children age 4 years -1st grade may attend Passage, our children’s worship experience, after the children’s sermon, or remain with their parents in the service.
- Noting that restrooms are located directly behind the choir loft.

Lectionary Psalm (Psalm 147:1-11)

1 Praise the Lord. How good it is to sing praises to our God, how pleasant and fitting to praise him!
2 The Lord builds up Jerusalem; he gathers the exiles of Israel.
3 He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.
4 He determines the number of the stars and calls them each by name.
5 Great is our Lord and mighty in power; his understanding has no limit.
6 The Lord sustains the humble but casts the wicked to the ground.
7 Sing to the Lord with grateful praise; make music to our God on the harp.
8 He covers the sky with clouds; he supplies the earth with rain and makes grass grow on the hills.
9 He provides food for the cattle and for the young ravens when they call.
10 His pleasure is not in the strength of the horse, nor his delight in the legs of the warrior;
11 the Lord delights in those who fear him, who put their hope in his unfailing love.

Morning Scripture (Matthew 16:13-20)  Ben Winder

13 When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do people say the Son of Man is?”

14 They replied, “Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”

15 “But what about you?” he asked. “Who do you say I am?”

16 Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.”

17 Jesus replied, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by flesh and blood, but by my Father in heaven. 18 And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not overcome it. 19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.” 20 Then he ordered his disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

REDEMPTION... A Journey through Matthew’s Gospel
This week’s reading calls us to Matthew 17 & 18. You can find the video and the discussion questions at http://www.fbcknox.org/re Redemption/. Let me encourage you to make the time to read along with us so that this great gospel might have the greatest opportunity to speak into your life.

The Church calendar will tell us that this coming Sunday is Transfiguration Sunday. We will join others across the globe looking at this powerful passage (Matthew 17:1-14) where we see that in Jesus we see the fulfillment of the law and the prophets. The pronouncement of the pleasure of the Father again echoes from heaven with a clear command to listen to Jesus. Transfiguration calls us to see the wholeness of Jesus’ teaching that calls wraps together law, prophets and gospel in a way that lets us get a glimpse of the holiness of God. This will be an invitation to relish in the presence of God and then to come down off the mountain to live as the redeemed. Scott Claybrook will bring us the 8:45 sermon and Tom Ogburn will preach the 11:00 am Service.
